

Holly Malan is Director of Development for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater San Diego in Escondido. She is responsible for managing the Clubs' s major fund raising events, coordinating special projects, grants, fundraising volunteers, public relations and marketing. She serves as 1st Vice President and is past secretary of the Association of Boys & Girls Clubs Professionals National Board. Holly has a BA in Recreation Administration from San Diego State University and a Professional Certificate in Contemporary Marketing from UCSD Extension.